WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Kentucky, clearing during the night; generally fair Saturday; westerly winds; slightly warmer in western portions.

FEWER people emigrated from free-trade England to this country last year than the year before.

KEEP your eye on Hoke Smith. A man who can start out a penniless attorney and amass a fortune of $300,000 in a few years out of his practice, and who works his way to the front in politics as he has done, is apt to be heard from hereafter.

"A SPLENDID selection. I know Gresham. He is a great, big, broad-minded man—the very one for you to choose." Such is said to have been the exact language of Hon. John G. Carlisle, when informed by President-elect Cleveland of the selection of Judge Gresham for Secretary of State. The little fellows had better take a back seat now.

IN offering him (Gresham) a high place in the councils of the administration, whether it is accepted or declined the President-elect gives the country a supreme guarantee that the Democratic party has not invited the confidence of its "honorable allies" in order to betray it," very pointedly and very pertinently remarks the Press of Cleveland, O.

JUDGE GEORGE P. TYLER, who is frequently seen in Maysville on business, and who is a Democrat from way back, will be an applicant for First Assistant Secretary of the Interior under the incoming administration. When the Judge predicted, during the last campaign, that the Democrats would carry Ohio he was laughed at by many, but Cleveland got part of the State's electoral vote all the same.

WHEN Judge Gresham announced last fall that he intended voting for Cleveland, the opposition made light of it, and declared he wasn't much of a Republican anyway. Now some of these same G. O. P. leaders are trying to make out that Mr. Gresham is one of the biggest Republicans in the country. He is one of the biggest men in the land, but it is extremely doubtful whether he will ever be caught back in such bad company any more.

ABERDEEN FLASHES.

The moke string band of Maysville was over Wednesday.

W. S. Sibbald and Wm. Hutsell have returned from their Cincinnati trip.

Born, to the wife of Reuben Davis, February 13th, a nine-pound girl baby.

W. A. Rist, 'Squire Jack Purdon and ex-Marshall King attended the Dyas Gilbert sale Wednesday.

Major General Elkins is the popular pill-pounder and general utility man at Rosendoll's medicine store.

Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of Front street, has returned home after a lengthy visit 'mongst relatives at Georgetown, Ky.

Call at Garrison's and see the wonderful bargains in shoes, at low down prices. Big lot just opened. All styles and sizes.

Colonel Simmons is confined to his home with the grip. The genial Colonel has many friends who will be pleased to see him soon regain his wonted health.

The cleverest man in the United States is Charley Warren, salesman for Wm. Smith & Co., and Charley has hosts of friends who will substantiate the same.

Wm. Griffith, of whom we made mention a short time ago as being seriously ill, is now somewhat better, and changes are more favorable for a recovery.

William Warren has made a good Trustee and should be re-nominated, and what's more re-elected. Democratic primary March 11. Attend, all yes-movers, attend and nominate a ticket to be proud of.

We extend our heartiest thanks to our christian friend James Small for many favors conferred. Jim's friendship is as solid as the rock of ages, and you can't find a more courteous gentleman in all America.

Wm. Campbell, of the Model Grocery, has everything in the eating line, from an onion to pickled pigs feet. Staple and fancy goods always in stock. Country produce wanted by the car-load. Tobacco and cigars, stationery, etc. No. 99 East Second street.

S. P. Campbell, at Rosendoll's drug store, is making a special run on Gooche's Mexican remedies, fine perfumes, toilet articles and everything pertaining to the drug line. Choice cigars, etc. A full line of almanacs, dating 1876. Come and see quite a curiosity.

W. S. Sibbald, the leading grocer, has just returned from Cincinnati with a large and choice line of staple and fancy groceries. All kinds of canned goods, vegetables, etc. Cigars and tobacco in profusion. Oranges, bananas, lemons and tropical fruits in abundance. Prices on all goods low down, consistent with quality. Hardware of all kinds. Garden implements, etc.

River News.

Big rise in Kanawha and Big Sandy. River rose six inches here last night and is rising an inch an hour to-day.

Due to-night: Telegraph, Hudson and Stanley. Down: Scotia this evening and Bonanza to-morrow.

CURRENT TOPICS IN SOCIETY.

Miss Minnie McDougale entertained the Young Ladies' Afternoon Euchre Club Friday afternoon.

Mrs. C. D. Russell entertained at cards last Saturday afternoon. "Hearts" was the game indulged in, and the idea was successfully carried out in every detail of the entertainment. Miss Mayme Pearce and Mrs. A. R. Burgess were the fortunate winners of the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Power threw open their spacious and elegant home on Tuesday evening last with a delightful dancing party in honor of their charming guest Miss Simonds. Terpsichore held full sway. At eleven o'clock the dancers did full justice to the delicious collation served. The list of those present was as follows: Mrs. Theodore Power, elegant black silk; Mrs. George L. Cox, white crepe de chine; Miss Simonds, very handsome in yellow brocade silk; Miss Katherine Albert, pale blue crape; Miss Hattie Albert, black lace; Miss Susie Huston Hall, pale blue silk; Miss Jennie Wood, empire gown of white silk; Miss Belle Barkley, red crape; Miss Jennie Peed, mauve silk; Miss Lillie M. Thomas, exquisite pink faille, with embroidered chiffon. The gentlemen in attendance were Messrs. T. C. Power, Stanley Watson, Will Cole, Harry Barkley, Dr. DeWitt C. Franklin, Dr. P. G. Smoot, James Barbour, Sam. T. Hickman, Harry C. Curran.

Mrs. Foster Barbour entertained the ladies of the Matinee Club last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Emma Campbell gave a small euchre party Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Kemper, of Cincinnati. Mrs. Ben. Poyntz won the prize.

Mrs. Ben. T. Poyntz entertained the Matinee Club most delightfully Tuesday afternoon with a Valentine party. Archery was the pastime, and had any of the sterner sex been present, Dan Cupid would have carried off the prize, but as it was, the little god himself, in the form of an exquisite little picture, was taken captive by the charming Mrs. Phil Kemper, who proved herself the most skillful marksman. Each guest was the recipient of a dainty little Valentine souvenir. After partaking of a delicious repast, the guests reluctantly departed, declaring their beautiful hostess more charming than ever, if that were possible.

Miss Mayme Pearce entertained at cards, at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. C. C. Dobyns, last Thursday evening.

The Mozart Musical Club, of the Visitation Academy, gave a beautiful Valentine tea last Tuesday afternoon. As the guests partook of delightful ices and cakes, they were regaled with music by the accomplished Mandolin Club, of which the academy is justly proud.

A Fugitive from Justice

Chief of Police Fitzgerald and Constable Dawson arrested Jim Williams, colored, on the Fleming pike yesterday afternoon, and lodged him in jail as a fugitive from justice. Williams is one of the prisoners who escaped a week or so ago from the jail at Georgetown, O. He is wanted there on a charge of burglary. He agreed to return to Georgetown at once and was taken back this morning by Marshal Thompson, of Ripley.

Circuit Court.

Charles Settles was convicted yesterday of cutting and wounding Reuben Stockdale at the Maysville fair last August, and fined $50 and costs.

The grand jury reported six indictments yesterday—two for Sabbath breaking, two for selling liquor to a minor, one for forgery and one for disturbing a lawful assemblage.

Court adjourned last evening until Monday.

County Court.

Jacob D. Hawkins qualified as guardian of Robert Jones, with Wm. B. Hawkins as surety.

Anna Suit, guardian of John A. Suit and Carrie T. Spitt, filed reports of said wards' estate.

The license of James F. Clark to retail spirituous, vinous and malt liquors was transferred to Wm. Rosser.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies use themay California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, make it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of package.

Pay Your Dog Tax.

All dogs upon which the taxes are not paid before March 1st will be impounded or killed. E. E. PEARCE, JR., Mayor.

FINE Florida oranges 20 and 25 cents per dozen, the best sold this season for the money. BONA.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. H. C. Sharp has returned from a visit at Paris.

Miss Julia Worthington, of Tuckahoe, is visiting Mrs. J. O. Pickrell, of East Second street.

Mrs. B. W. Goodman and son are visiting relatives at Mt. Carmel, and will spend a week there.

Miss Kate Claire, of the West End, left this morning for Bedford, Ind., to visit her sister, Mrs. John Johnson.

Miss Iva Dee Allen, of Millersburg, and Miss Susan Craycraft, of Sharpsburg, are guests of Miss Mae Marshall, of Lewisburg.

SUIT has been filed at Covington by W. L. Gibson against the administrator of W. G. Morris for $10,000, due on ten notes executed for $1,000 each, subject to a credit of $300. When Mr. Morris died the Covington Trust Company took charge of his estate as administrator. Thursday, the Trust Company filed suit against W. G. Morris' executors for a settlement of the estate. This petition sets up that there are claims against the estate that amount to about $25,000. The claims, as presented in this petition, are as follows: W. L. Gibson, $10,500; George Bruce, $6,800; Brooks Waterfield, $1,108.43; Chas. Bateman, $600. The petition claims that some of the above claims will be contested. When Mr. Morris died the inventory of his estate filed showed the total valuation to be $15,000. His life insurance amounted to over $35,000, but this was for the benefit of his widow and other heirs.
